THE ART OF MAKEUP

The Elizabeth Grady School is pleased to announce the upcoming Art of Makeup series. The Art of Makeup series of programs will explore the varied elements necessary to become a professional makeup artist. Upon completion of the entire sequence of programs you will be awarded an Art of Makeup Certificate.

The Art of Makeup is a series of classes broken down into four modules totaling 80-hours of instruction. Each module is a prerequisite for acceptance into the next.

THE ART OF MAKEUP I: FUNDAMENTALS

Art Theory- How the principles of art apply to creating makeup looks. An overview with emphasis in color theory is provided in AOMUP I. Art and its application to makeup is further explored in AOMUP II, III, IV.

Tools of the Trade- Gain understanding of the brushes, applicators, and cosmetic preparations used to create a desired look.

Special Application tips and techniques- For lips, eyes, cheeks and foundation.

THE ART OF MAKEUP II: EXPLORE

The Third Dimension- Establish the importance, power and skills of highlight and contour.

Geometry for Makeup Artists- Explore line and shape.

Creating “The Look”- Natural-soft

A look to take to the beach

- Professional-day

A look to take to the office

- Dramatic-evening

A look a makeup artist can take anywhere

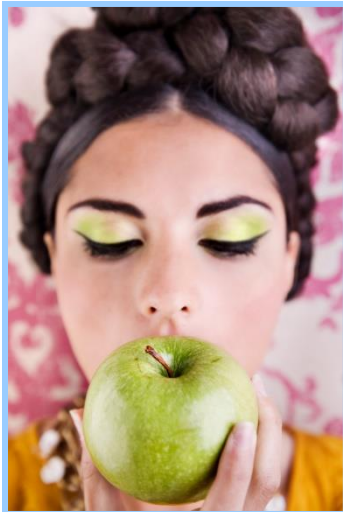

THE ART OF MAKEUP III: DISCOVER

It's Just History Repeating Itself- Discover the history of cosmetics, its relationship to fashion and how to make vintage new again.

Here Comes the Bride- A big money maker for the makeup artist. Learn the dos and don'ts of makeup for the bride and bridal party.

Eyelashes- Learn how to apply false lashes.

Avante Garde- Smokey eyes, creative design, glitter, gems and Gaga.

THE ART OF MAKEUP IV: CREATE

Airbrush- One class will be devoted to learning the basics of airbrush applications

Fashion and Runway

Photography, Lighting and Angles

Intro to Makeup for Film and Stage

Business for the Makeup Professional- the last class will investigate how to translate your art into a paycheck. Learn how to network, build a portfolio, organize and promote makeup as a business.

Frequently Asked Questions and Considerations:

- In Massachusetts you are required to hold a license in esthetics or cosmetology to provide makeup services for compensation in a professional setting.
- You may work for a cosmetic company as a sales representative without a license because you are demonstrating the product for sale of the product and not performing a service.
- If you choose to continue in the Esthetics program at Elizabeth Grady after completing the Art of Makeup Program, the school will credit you with the time spent in makeup artistry and give you a 5% discount off total tuition amount.
- No financial aid is available for the Art of Makeup Programs. Financial Aid is available for licensing programs in Esthetics and Massage Therapy.
