Frequently Asked Questions and Considerations:

- In Massachusetts you are required to hold a license in esthetics or cosmetology to provide makeup services for compensation in a professional setting.
- You may work for a cosmetic company as a sales representative without a license because you are demonstrating the product for sale of the product and not performing a service.
- If you choose to continue in the Esthetics program at Elizabeth Grady after completing the Art of Makeup Program, the school will credit you with the time spent in makeup artistry and give you a 5% discount off total tuition amount.
- No financial aid is available for the Art of Makeup Programs. Financial Aid is available for licensing programs in Esthetics and Massage Therapy.
